KELLY BEATTIE: EMPOWERMENT COACH & CONSULTANT

A Heart-Centered Approach.

Kelly Beattie is a heart-centered listener who is driven by a passion to help others grow and develop. As the lead Empowerment Coach & Consultant at Beyond Connections, Kelly shares a wealth of experience and knowledge to empower teams to step into their greatness.

For over two decades, Kelly has built a legacy of working directly with organizations to build effective, accountable teams in a safe and growth-conducive environment. She leads teams through a trademarked CARE-approach (Connection, Accountability, Respect, Empathy) that creates a “place” for individuals to be engaged, involved, and valued, no matter the size of team or stage of growth.

She leverages her education and experience to accelerate teams in their development and improvement processes, while engaging and empowering individuals to take charge of their change journey. With certifications in Diversity & Inclusion and Change & Human Resource Management, Kelly exudes a contagious spirit for continuous improvement and engagement.

Kelly remains committed to engaging, empowering and helping teams evolve by embracing human talent in all organizations and creating a connected workforce. The training and development solutions she offers, from Engagement and Process Consulting, to LEGO® SERIOUS PLAY® Methods, are proven to help teams increase employee engagement, identify the right tools and resources to generate lasting outcomes, and to inspire employees to reach their greatest potential.
